

1 concerned that would affect a finding with respect to the
2 guidelines.

3 MR. COGAN: No, that's correct, Your Honor.

4 THE COURT: At this time then, Mr. Cogan, you've
5 pretty much covered, I think, any argument with respect to
6 mitigation, but if you'd like to say something more, I'd be
7 happy to hear from you.

8 MR. COGAN: No. Nothing further.

9 THE COURT: Mr. Willaman, is there anything you
10 would care to say?

11 THE DEFENDANT: No, Your Honor.

12 THE COURT: Mr. Piccinini?

13 MR. PICCININI: Your Honor, nothing beyond the 14 comments that I made.

15 THE COURT: As I said, I've read the letters that 16 came in support of Mr. Willaman. I've also heard the 17 arguments.

18 I find that he does have family responsibilities,
19 but on the other hand, they are not nearly as bad as a lot of
20 the ones that I have heard in here. They do have three grown
21 children, mature children, who certainly can help out.

22 I think Mr. Willaman was at least misguided by, I
23 don't know who was the leader here, whether it was Sivic,
24 Bilunka, or somebody else, but I think he was badly misled
25 and misguided by some or all of those gentlemen.
